

Daniel Marco Siegfried

Co-Founder & Managing Director Programmes Child's Dream Foundation

Daniel Marco Siegfried is a Co-Founder and Managing Director Programmes of Child's Dream Foundation. Daniel serves in various boards of the Child's Dream charity family and chairs the board of the Swiss association. He is responsible for the overall strategy of the organisation as well as the development and implementation of local humanitarian projects aimed at improving health and education for sustainable development. With a budget of close to US$ 10 million, Child's Dream, with its 50 colleagues, has implemented or runs over 700 charitable projects and programmes in Myanmar, Laos, Cambodia and Thailand, called the Mekong Sub-Region. Daniel further sits in various philanthropic advisory boards.

A Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and graduate of the Zurich Business School, Daniel worked for close to 10 years at UBS in Zurich, Hong Kong, Seoul and Singapore. During his years with UBS he traveled extensively in Asia and visited numerous charitable organizations, which unveiled his altruistic side. Ultimately, he decided to leave the financial service sector for good in 2003, and dedicate his life on bringing positive change to marginalized people. When asked about his motivation, he simply replies 'Because it feels right!'
